

NORAD_Classes

	Teaching List	Classroom 1	Classroom 2	Classroom 3
10:00	Better Offense through Defense	Rapier Marshaling (Part 1)	Shield 101
11:00	Rapier Marshaling (Part 2)	Art in the Dark	Zen Fighting	Historic Handstitching
12:00	Lunch break / Dirty Tricks	Lunch Break	Lunch Break	Lunch Break
1:00	Ringeck's Longsword Techniques	Command Voice	Scribal Playroom	Jade Artifacts (at merchant table)
2:00		Command Confidence	Scribal Playroom	Care and Maintenance of Rapiers
3:00	Melee 101	Teaching Beginning Rapier	Scribal Playroom	Dragon Eyes
4:00	Short Side Engagements	Tactical Cowardice	Scribal Playroom	Pocket Leather Journal

TEACHING LIST

10:00 "Better offense through defense."

Lord Mordalf

Learn to close the gap and control the fight. Rapier Drills and techniques that will help you take control of an engagement. Learn when & how to defend, allowing you to

11:00 "Rapier Marshaling (Part 2)"

Warder Llen Crede

The practical portion of Rapier Marshaling. See Classroom 1, 10:00 for description.

12:00 "Lunch Break / Dirty Tricks"

Warder Lorenzo Calabrese

A roundtable discussion on legal but uncommon techniques to surprise opponents. Bring your lunch.

1:00 "Sigmund Ringeck's Longsword Techniques"

Ionna of Three Towers

Beginner's class covering Sigmund Ringeck's Longsword techniques based on the Johannes Liechtenauer tradition. Depending on knowledge level of students, class will cover everything from basic footwork, strikes and guards to master strikes and displacemaents. Longswords not required, but recommended if possible. 2 hours

NORAD_Classes

3:00 “Melee 101”

Lord Vladimir Grigorovich D'ragoun

Whether its your first time on the melee field or just want to brush up as melee season approaches this class will cover what you are looking for. We will be covering basic commands, formations, and conventions that you may face on the melee field. Some past scenarios will also be covered and how each of those was and could have been

4:00 “Short Side Engagements: How to Prepare for the Inevitable” Warder Mael Duin mac Guilla Ennae

Hands on (if numbers allow) exercises for when you lack numerical superiority. Bring gear. If we have interested Armored Combatants/Crossovers without Rapier Gear, I have a backup plan that will let everyone play.

CLASSROOM 1

10:00 “Rapier Marshaling (Part 1)”

Warder Lleng Craidd, North Oaken Rapier Marshal

A class for Marshals in Training, covering marshaling concerns, equipment inspection, list safety, etc. Students earn a full set of signatures. Bring a flash-drive and go home with all the forms you will need as Marshals. 2 hours (1 hour discussion, 1 hour

11:00 “Art in the Dark”

Mistress Katarina Peregrine

An intro level art survey, aimed at newer folks. We look at art from the point of view of clothing, fabrics and stylistic changes in both fashion and the art itself, mainly in

12:00 Lunch Break

Eat some brain food, do some shopping.

1:00 "Command Voice 101 or How to be Heard on the Battlefield"

Lord DonalBane of Blackmers

Description: What good is taking (or receiving) commands on the field if you can't be heard?

Techniques for the heraldic and/or bardic voice can help get your message across. Be prepared to use your voice as your weapon. Bring masks/helms. This class can be helpful to both rapier and armored fighters. We'll move to outside, weather permitting.

2:00 "Command Confidence 101: You can't be Afraid of the Wind"

Warder Mael Duin mac Guilla Ennae

Insight into what goes on with the command structure and how to survive encounters with it. Tips and strategies for the rigors of leadership.

3:00 "Teaching Beginning Rapier."

Warder Llen Crede

Instruction on teaching beginning (basic) rapier.

4:00 "Tactical Cowardice"

Morganus Eternus and Ancareta Morganus

In this class, we will discuss how best to employ the retreat in fencing. We will go over both technique and strategy. Technique will focus on footwork for standard retreats, passing steps, side steps, and some discussion of more advanced footwork such as the inquantata, and techniques such as body voids and what to do with that pointy thing in all this. Strategy will focus on when to back up, when to move sideways, and when to stand ground or aggress. We will also discuss practical considerations such as list size

CLASSROOM 2

10:00 "SCA Rapier Shield 101: Aggressive Shield"

Lord Mihajlo of Nerche

This class is non period but tactics that work in our game. It is meant for newer fighters or those new to shield work and want to learn the offensive side of shield use.

11:00 "ZEN fighting: first things first, what was I doing again?"

Dread Pirate Prudence

This is simply my diabolical plan to turn you all into the path to being enthusiastic, fun, safe, and skilled fighters with none of the wordy-wordyness, plus, there will be some

12:00 Lunch Break

Eat some brain food, do some shopping.

1:00 "Scribal Playroom"

Mistress Katarina Peregrine

Come and play with paint, ink and paper! Work on blanks, learn new techniques and hang out with other scribally-inclined types from 1:00 to 5:00.

CLASSROOM 3

11:00 "Historic Handstitching"

Lady Faoileann inghean Tighearnaigh

The purpose of this class is to analyze the stitches outlined on the Archaeological Sewing website. We will go over the basic stitches and look at the various ways they were used in period. Bring fabric scraps and basic hand-sewing equipment. If you are planning a period project, bring fabric and thread similar to what you will be using for

12:00 Lunch Break

Eat some brain food, do some shopping.

1:00 "Jade artifacts spanning 5,000 years of Chinese culture" Mike the Jade Merchant
Class to be taught at the merchant booth.

2:00 "Care and Maintenance of Rapiers" Lord Cadwgan Faber
Tired of your friends pointing and laughing at your rusty blades? Embarrassed by your rivals pointing out that you don't know how to polish your sword? Come, shake the rust off that blade, and learn some care and maintenance techniques. We will cover the basics, from getting nicks out of your blade to polishing that pommel . Plus, everyday care tips that will leave you the envy of the list. Bring that rusty sword with

3:00 "Dragon Eyes" Lord Malachi Rembert
Paint glass gems and gather your trophies from the great dragon. Ages 12 and up.
(under 12 with adult supervision) Limit 8 students. $1 Material fee

4:00 "Pocket Leather Journals" Lord Malachi Rembert
Make a small journal using leather, paper, cord and a button and record your victories on the field. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. Limit 8 students. $4