

Brendoken Baronial Meeting – December 7, 2008

Meeting called to order at 4:12 pm.

Contract for the Tadmor is available, a check for the deposit is needed.

Baron's Report: he is here and well.

Baroness's Report: she is here and well and very busy.

Exchequer's Report: Dave (Folh Dubh) will be the new exchequer. Official changeover to be in January.

Pursuivant's Report: Not present.

Knight's Marshal: Please note marshal authorization cards need to be re-done.

Chronicler's Report: seeking replacement still. Lady Bridget to be the deputy and to take over the deputy position in the new year.

Web Minister's Report: Updating the website with the Portcullis, meeting minutes, and links to photos. Please advise her of any changes.

The barony is looking for a Chatelaine.

Chamberlain's Report: Not present.

Alderford

Planning for Masque is going well. Looking for a thrown weapons marshal for the event. Feast of Italian cuisine by Francesca for 150 seats, 3 courses at least. Their Royal Highnesses will be present. Masked costume ball following feast with live entertainment. Replacement Seneschal is Francesca. Einar to stay thru the Doomesday Report.

Gwyntarian

Planning Winter Oaken Regional Academy of Defense for the spring. (Note: This event was postponed until fall 2009 subsequent to the baronial meeting.)

Thistle

Members participated in demos at a Boar's Head feast last night. Six of the Brendoken Blades were participants in the program and earned $50 for the group. Rapier practice being held in Dalton first and third Fridays. Our holiday gathering is Wednesday, Dec 10th at the Wadsworth Library.

Three Towers

March 14th – Oaken Regional Cook's Symposium. Will have bardic performances. Encampment at the Castle date is set, June 19, 20, 21. 2nd Tuesday of the month – heavy practice, 4th Tuesday of the month – rapier and revel.

The barony will continue our baronial meetings at the current location for the next year. Mageen to handle the coordination.

Brendokenfest is set for April 25th at the Tuscarawas Fairgrounds.

Meeting adjourned at 4:38 pm followed by a holiday revel.